

Rule and expand your lands wisely as you contend with the uncertainty of Medieval times: harsh winters, good and bad harvests, robbers, and plague. How will you grow your realm? Should you pursue innovations or invest in commerce? Will you have enough food to survive the next winter? Dice Realms puts you in command!

Dice Realms is a new twist on dice crafting, where players pop out and replace the faces of their customizable dice as they build their realms. Have you ever wanted to tilt the odds in your favor when you roll dice? Now, you can do that. Specializing your dice, plus a free reroll each turn, gives you lots of control. Do you craft your dice for inventions, coins, grain, defense, or the new faces that make every game different? This 2nd printing of Dice Realms adds solo and cooperative play, where an Invader attacks every round but players can help defend and ship grain to each other. Can you beat your rivals, or the Invader, as you build and expand your realm?
